Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Armour Chronicle has been serving the people in the Armour area since it was first published from Frank Manbeck's calf pen in May of 1882; and,

WHEREAS, Maynard Goehring will be celebrating his thirty-two years as publisher of The Chronicle on May first of this year; and,

WHEREAS, The Armour Chronicle has been consistent in its quality and reliability in service to the people of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The Armour Chronicle is a progressive newspaper and has always strived to provide its readers with all the news they need to know; and,

WHEREAS, The Armour Chronicle, with its excellent track record that spans an entire century, deserves special recognition for its 100-year dedication to top-quality journalism in a fine family newspaper that everyone can enjoy; and,

WHEREAS, The people of South Dakota and especially the citizens of the Armour area are extremely grateful to the Armour Chronicle and Maynard Goehring for all he has done for them:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 1, 1982, as in South Dakota, and encourage other newspapers to follow the lead of this fine, old South Dakota weekly.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
